

Beth McMahon, Grade Two

Mrs. McMahon has nearly 30 years of teaching experience in preschool through fourth grade. She has been teaching at OLQM since 1998. Prior to that, she taught at St. Isaac Jogues, in St. Clair Shores, Community Preschool (teacher and director) and Ferndale Public Schools. Mrs. McMahon attended St. Lawrence Catholic School, in Utica. She has a B.A. in elementary education from Michigan State University. She received her master of teaching degree (M.A.T.) in reading and language arts from Oakland University. Her two children are both OLQM K-8 graduates. She and her husband are parishioners and live in Beverly Hills.