

Mrs. Laura Papa; Preschool Aide

Mrs. Papa will be one of our Pre-K Aides at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Catholic School. She attended St. Hugo of the Hills and Holy Name for Elementary school and Middle School. She attended Central Michigan University earning her Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a minor in marketing. She started out working in Human Resources at General Motors after graduation from college. Mrs. Papa has worked in the Birmingham Public School system since 2002 as a paraprofessional both at the Elementary and Middle School levels. She is retiring this year from BPS and is looking forward to working with the younger children, which is her passion. She lives with her husband in the Beverly Hills area. She has two children, Carl, Age 28, who has just graduated from Wayne State University with a J.D. degree. Her daughter, Rebecca, is 26, lives in New York and works as a Speech Pathologist. They have a King Charles spaniel named Cooper who is "King" of the house. Mrs. Papa's late uncle was a priest at Most Holy Trinity in Detroit, Msgr. Clement Kern, who was very involved with the Detroit area in the 1950 through the early 1980's. Her parents were also longtime parishioners at OLQM. She enjoys reading, taking long walks, yoga, and doing crafts in her spare time.