

Miss Samantha Mann, Director of Early Childhood Program; Pre-Kindergarten

Miss Mann has been involved in Catholic education throughout her whole school career, and has taught kindergarten at various Catholic schools for over ten years. Following graduation from high school, she continued her catholic education at Madonna University in Livonia, earning her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Mathematics, with a minor in Early Elementary Education. Miss Mann went on with her education and earned her Master's Degree in Early Elementary Teaching and Learning, also from Madonna University.